“It is important for all elected parliamentarians to lead by example, encouraging others from diverse backgrounds to seek elected office so the views of persons with disabilities are represented, heard and understood by our respective democratically elected governments.”

Hon. Kevin Murphy, MLA
Speaker, Nova Scotia